DEFENDANT CORRECTIONAL MEDICAL SERVICES' EXPERT DISCLOSURES

Defendant Correctional Medical Services' identifies John Conlon, M.D. as the Regional Medical Director for CMS. Dr. Conlon's curriculum vitae is attached hereto. Dr. Conlon has reviewed a copy of the Complaint and some of the medical records generated in this case.

Dr. Conlon will testify that based on the documents he has reviewed, his training, education and experience, that CMS met standard of care while treating the plaintiff regarding his sebaceous cyst while incarcerated at Delaware Correctional Center. Dr. Conlon is expected to testify that CMS personal appropriately evaluated Mr. Hackett's medical condition clinically. After an appropriate diagnosis of sebaceous cyst, appropriate care was rendered to Mr. Hackett and a timely referral was made to a general surgeon to remove the cyst. It is his opinion that the care rendered by CMS regarding Mr. Hackett's sebaceous cyst was appropriate and within standard of care.

Dr. Conlon holds these opinions with reasonable medical probability. He reserves the right to alter or amend these opinions upon receipt of additional information.
